FERC ORDER 636 TRANSITION COSTS

APPLICABLE:

To all transportation volumes.

FERC ORDER 636 TRANSITION COSTS:

The FERC Order 636 Transition Costs surcharge shall be $.01 per Mcf for delivery by Company to Customer of all Customer-owned gas and is in addition to the delivery charge and optional service charges provided for under contract or tariff.

To meet competition and retain throughput, the Company may be required to flex the level of the FERC Order 636 Transition Costs surcharge to customers subject to this tariff.

The above rate has been adjusted to include the effect of the Ohio Excise Tax on Gross Receipts. In the event the rate of the Excise Tax increases, or any new State or Local taxes are imposed upon the Company applicable to the delivery of gas, the FERC Order 636 Transition Costs surcharge will be adjusted to include any such increase and/or additional taxes.

Columbia will credit the Customer's account for identifiable Order 636 Transition Costs paid directly to an interstate pipeline for delivery of Customer's gas.
