RE; Case No. 04-0131-TP-ATA

Dear Ms. Jenkins

On January 26, 2004, Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company (CBT's) filed to revise its General Exchange Tariff, PUCO No. 8 to add monthly rates for Disaster Redirect Service.

CBT would like to amend the previously filing for additional clarification on when the monthly rate for Disaster Redirect Service would be applicable. Please replace the previously submitted tariff pages, Section 40, Pages 3 and 6, with the attached. CBT apologizes for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Please date-stamp and return the enclosed duplicate of this transmittal to acknowledge its receipt. Any questions regarding this transmittal should be directed to Evelyn King at (513) 397-1378.

Sincerely,

DISASTER REDIRECT SERVICE

B. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS (Continued)

3. Disaster Pattern

A predetermined set of call-handling instructions established by the customer by which incoming calls will be rerouted in the event of a service interruption.

4. Time of Day/Day of Week Routing

Reroutes calls to a different location or different routing arrangement based upon the times of day/days of week when the call originates.

5. Allocation Routing

Reroutes incoming calls to different locations based upon a percentage distribution as determined by the customer.

C. REGULATIONS

1. Provision of this service, or provision of any specific element associated with this tariff, is subject to the availability and operational limitations of the equipment and associated facilities.
2. The customer shall work with a CBT representative in designing a disaster routing plan. This plan may consist of one or more disaster patterns.
3. Disaster Redirect Service is available for payment plans of 12, 36 and 60 months. The minimum service period for Disaster Redirect Service is 12 months. At the end of any of the payment plan periods, if the customer does not renew for another payment period or does not request discontinuance of service, Disaster Redirect Service will be continued at the then-current rates for the monthly payment period. Customers who prematurely disconnect their Disaster Redirect Service will be subject to termination charges. The termination charge will be calculated by multiplying the number of patterns by the contracted rate per pattern times the number of months remaining in the payment period.

Commission approval of the termination liability for Disaster Redirect Service contracts or arrangements is not intended to indicate that the Commission has approved or sanctioned any terms or provisions contained therein. Signatories to such contracts shall be free to pursue whatever legal remedies they may have should a dispute arise.

4. If the customer cancels, in whole or in part, any requested addition or modification to Disaster Redirect Service prior to installation of the service the customer will reimburse CBT for the actual expenses incurred by CBT in connection with such modification prior to CBT's receipt of notice of cancellation. However, the amount of such reimbursement should not exceed the charges for which the customer would have otherwise been responsible.
